*Please note, some of these services may incur a cost.

How it works

5 simple Yes/No questions that make it easy to understand risk

The user is presented with easy question sets that can be completed in a couple of minutes. Feedback is received immediately and provides insights into what the user is doing well, where they can improve, and how they can improve.

The Risk Snapshot function contains insights into a variety of risk areas. Continually updated with information on new risks, this function is currently available in UK and US English. Further languages are in development and will be added to the Risk Snapshot module over time.
