

Terms and Conditions

By entering the Zurich Innovation Championship (ZIC), the applicant grants Zurich, the rights, without limitation or further permission or compensation, to retain the full content of the application(s), even if the applicant is not selected as winner of the ZIC. The applicant agrees that Zurich will have the right after the ZIC, but not the obligation, in its sole discretion to contact any applicant regarding possible business relationship with Zurich for further innovative initiatives.

By accepting a prize, winners grant Zurich, the additional rights, without limitation or further permission or compensation, to use and publish their names in conjunction with the ZIC.

The applicant confirms to have read and understand the FAQs of the ZIC and fully and unconditionally agree to comply with the rules described in the FAQs. If the applicant does not agree with any of the rules of the FAQs, he shall not register for the ZIC and shall not submit an application.

The content of the application(s) can only be removed on applicant's written request by innovation@zurich.com.
