Disclaimer and cautionary statement

Certain statements in this document are forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, statements that are predictions of or indicate future events, trends, plans or objectives of Zurich Insurance Group Ltd or the Zurich Insurance Group (the ‘Group’). Forward-looking statements include statements regarding the Group’s targeted profit, return on equity targets, expenses, pricing conditions, dividend policy and underwriting and claims results, as well as statements regarding the Group’s understanding of general economic, financial and insurance market conditions and expected developments. Undue reliance should not be placed on such statements because, by their nature, they are subject to known and unknown risks and uncertainties and can be affected by other factors that could cause actual results and plans and objectives of Zurich Insurance Group Ltd or the Group to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward looking statements (or from past results). Factors such as (i) general economic conditions and competitive factors, particularly in key markets; (ii) the risk of a global economic downturn, in the financial services industries in particular; (iii) performance of financial markets; (iv) levels of interest rates and currency exchange rates; (v) frequency, severity and development of insured claims events; (vi) mortality and morbidity experience; (vii) policy renewal and lapse rates; and (viii) changes in laws and regulations and in the policies of regulators may have a direct bearing on the results of operations of Zurich Insurance Group Ltd and its Group and on whether the targets will be achieved. Zurich Insurance Group Ltd undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any of these forward-looking statements, whether to reflect new information, future events or circumstances or otherwise.

All references to ‘Farmers Exchanges’ mean Farmers Insurance Exchange, Fire Insurance Exchange, Truck Insurance Exchange and their subsidiaries and affiliates. The three Exchanges are California domiciled interinsurance exchanges owned by their policyholders with governance oversight by their Boards of Governors. Farmers Group, Inc. and its subsidiaries are appointed as the attorneys-in-fact for the Farmers Exchanges and in that capacity provide certain non-claims administrative and management services to the Farmers Exchanges. Neither Farmers Group, Inc., nor its parent companies, Zurich Insurance Company Ltd and Zurich Insurance Group Ltd, have any ownership interest in the Farmers Exchanges. Financial information about the Farmers Exchanges is proprietary to the Farmers Exchanges, but is provided to support an understanding of the performance of Farmers Group, Inc. and Farmers Reinsurance Company.

It should be noted that past performance is not a guide to future performance and that interim results are not necessarily indicative of full year results.

In a strong position to deal with financial implications

DISCUSSION AREAS

- Target ROE range harder to achieve given low yield & GI growth outlook
- Capital ratios impacted by low yield environment
- Regulatory environment still evolving

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR US

- Still expect to achieve our 12-14% ROE target in 2016
- Capital remains very strong on all key metrics
- Established economic solvency regime in Switzerland, minor impact from Solvency II at group level
GROUP CEO

No major strategic implications, but we need to be adaptable

First step taken in manage for value capital release, with more to come

Lower growth means that we need to focus more on efficiency

Data and digital will be key to the coming years, but linked also to efficiency

Leveraging global capability to sustain value from our substantial in-force book

In-force Management (IFM) is key to ‘Managing for value’

- In 2014, we developed a unified approach to IFM and rolled it out to UK, Germany, Switzerland and US
- We have established a comprehensive and globally consistent definition of ‘in-force’
- We have clear, granular and structured insights into the value drivers of our in-force books by market
- In 2015 we are expanding IFM to include Ireland and Isle of Man and informally transfer our learnings to all other markets
IFM is business-as-usual in our four core markets

THE ZURICH WAY OF IFM

- A balanced approach to value management between In-force and New Business
- Additional, sustainable value
- Improved customer experience as well as shareholder return
- Actions taken in the context of the local market competition but sharing best practices globally

COMMENTARY FOR DEVELOPED MARKETS GROWTH

- Supports our targeted growth strategies for retail and CLP, where we have a distinctive advantage
- We are showing growth from our desired sources loading and fees (unit-linked) and technical margin (protection)
- Investment required in growth phase, as evidenced by the increased cash consumption and operating expenses
- Strategy should become self-funding over the mid-term period

² Excluding Expense & Other Variances of USD -46m in 2013 and USD -49m in 2014.
The expectation for the Emerging Markets Growth Segment is to be key growth engine contributor for Global Life.

Investments in Priority Markets has shown some signs of improvement but generally off to a slow start (FX adjusted growth slightly positive).

Further management actions required to get back on growth track.

Operating costs are being aligned to new market reality.

We have exceeded the run rate in prior years through a strong underlying run rate and additional management actions.

Run rate reduces with new business strain and investments in emerging markets and infrastructure. This will be offset by increased in-force management actions.

The inflection point is expected to be reached in 2016, with strong improvement from 2017 onwards as cash returns from new product strategy and in-force run rate actions emerge.

Average remittance 2012–2014 was approx. USD 0.2bn above our USD 0.5bn commitment.

KEY TRENDS

In support functions and IT:

- Prior savings initiatives have helped to offset the impact of inflation and increased regulatory expense
- 2014 saw increased investment in technology and costs of supporting growth in existing and developing markets

\(^1\) Excluding Farmers and restructuring charges. All figures rounded to one decimal point.
Our expense improvement opportunity is at least USD 1bn

COMMENTS

Our 2014 General Expenses compared to a sample of 10-12 peers in Europe and US remain high due to:

- Complex middle-office processes & systems
- Too many FTEs in high cost locations
- Ongoing investment in growth opportunities

Process streamlining to increase productivity and change our way of working

ZURICH WAY OF WORKING PROGRAM (ZWOW)

Productivity Streamlining Process

- Continuous improvement expectation ~5% productivity gain p.a.
- ~20% capacity freed up within 9-12 months after implementation of Z WoW

- 11 work streams completed to date (3 in 2014), further 33 planned in 2015
- ~15k FTEs involved in the program by end 2018 (with potential to extend to ~40k FTEs)
- Savings of USD 200-300m by end 2018
Focus of Zurich’s current technology strategy goes beyond efficiency improvements

KEY ELEMENTS OF MID-TERM TECHNOLOGY STRATEGY

- Customer / Agent / Broker Interface
- Data & Analytics
- Applications
- IT Infrastructure
- IT & Operations Talent Development
- Information Security
- Process Streamlining (ZWOW, Shared Services)
Three technologies are changing the way we support customer/agent/broker interface

Big data / Risk insights in Commercial Insurance

Utilizing new sources of data other than just industry data allows to price risks significantly better.

See NAC section of December 2014 Investor Update

Omni-channel in Farmers

Digital is foundational to omni-channel and the customer experience. The top consumer need in the digital channel is service (e.g. policy look up, etc.)

In 2014 we reviewed 100+ technologies.

We identified 12 disruptive technologies that would disrupt the insurance business model in the coming decade.

Of the 12, 4 disruptive technologies will have an impact on the current and future insurance value chain and business model.

- 20+ Zurich’s experts
- 4 weeks in Palo Alto
- 50+ companies visited incl. Venture Capital firms
- 100+ business ideas were generated
- 8 ideas prototyped being piloted in 3 Business Units in multiple geographies
Zurich focuses on 4 technology areas impacting the insurance value chain and business model

PERSISTENT CONTEXTUALITY AND CONNECTIVITY

Ubiquitous network connectivity is changing the way insurers interact with their customers

UBIQUITY OF DATA AND ANALYTICS

Data-enhanced insights allow improvement in customer propositions and process efficiencies, but also create opportunities to connect with non-traditional players

TELEMATICS (HOME & CAR) AND AUTONOMOUS VEHICLES

Telematics create opportunities for quicker/better underwriting and value-added customer services

AUTOMATION OF KNOWLEDGE WORK

Automation of knowledge work will transform the efficiency and effectiveness of many insurance processes
Currently collaborating with Palantir across seven pilots leveraging key competencies of both companies

Examples: Cyber Risk, Big Data, overcoming legacy IT
Automation of Knowledge Work

ZURICH’S FOCUS

- Leverage ‘machine learning’ to improve both risk pricing and claims assessments, reduce cost through more accurate damage estimates, and offer our customers continuous risk management services.
- Increase the level of digitalization across our process value chain, thus improving the efficiency and effectiveness of business processes.
- Continuously review opportunities arising from the wide adoption of automation by our corporate and commercial customers, brokers and agents.

OUR ACTIONS

Exploration teams currently deployed to prototype:

- Automation across operations through software robotics.
- Leveraging machine learning to analyze structured and unstructured data for quicker and more accurate pricing of risk.
In 2014 we reviewed 100+ technologies

Example of Prototype (1/2)

CONCEPT

- Concept: Digitize existing legacy applications
- Pilot BU/ Function locations: United States, United Kingdom, Italy, Spain, Switzerland, Farmers
- Cost to date: USD 300,000

CHALLENGE

- Highly complex processes and systems make customer/broker/agent interface slow, expensive and difficult to change
- Traditional application development solutions take too long to adapt to changes and do not support current devices and mobile applications
Example of Prototype (2/2)

SOLUTION

- Provide seamless access to devices and applications from customer/agent/broker/staff
- Utilize software robotics to reduce dependency on “legacy” application development change processes

BENEFITS

Flexibility
- Enable agents/employees to work anytime, anywhere, on any device

Transformation
- Simplify existing complex applications into dynamic/ flexible business workflows

Rationalization
- Extend life of legacy applications to bridge the technology change gap
Key messages

Opportunity to improve Zurich’s expense position by at least USD 1bn identified; work under way since Q3 2014

We aim to achieve this by end 2018, with at least USD 300m delivered by end 2016

Prioritize investments in new technologies

We are already taking action to position Zurich for the challenges and opportunities from Disruptive Technologies
Demonstrations & Lunch

James Quin, Head of Investor Relations & Group Performance Management
We have 5 demonstrations in the lunch breakout room:
- MyZurich portal
- Zurich Risk Room
- UK Corporate Savings
- GI retail: Examples of innovation
- Zurich’s approach to Corporate & Social Responsibility

Each demonstration will be run by a member of Zurich management, with a short presentation followed by Q&A.

We will run each demonstration up to 5 times over the course of the next 75 minutes, first demonstration will start at 12:50pm.

We’d like you to circulate around these demonstrations over lunch – it’s an informal session, and intended to be interactive!
SHORT SUMMARY

MyZurich portal
- Live demo of unique customer portal
- One tool to oversee and manage policy data, claims and emerging risks

Zurich Risk Room
- Live demo of portal to understand impact of global risks
- Award-winning tool demonstrating Zurich’s thought leadership and deep risk insights

UK Corporate Savings
- Corporate savings platform supporting growth of UK CLP
- Our responses to UK legislative changes introduced in April

GI retail: Examples of innovation
- Austria digital customer services
- Spain personalized renewal videos

Corporate & Social Responsibility
- Zurich’s approach to CSR
- CSR part of how we do business
1. Please pick up a lunch bag outside the auditorium.

2. First demonstration starts at 12.50pm. We will let you know when we will restart each demonstration (approximately every 15 minutes).

3. At 2pm we will start the Q&A sessions:
   - We’ve divided you into 3 groups – please go to your assigned room – either A, B or C, as shown on the back of your name label
   - Members of management will rotate between each of the rooms

4. At 3.45pm we will have a short break, followed by the finance session and then a wrap-up Q&A with Martin Senn and George Quinn in the main auditorium.

5. Formal sessions finish at around 5pm, when we will hold a short apéro.

1 Business operating profit after tax return on equity, excluding unrealized gains and losses.
2 Zurich Economic Capital Model (Z-ECM).
The Swiss Solvency Test (SST) ratio is calculated based on the Group’s internal model, and both are subject to the review and approval of the Group’s regulator, the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority (FINMA). The ratio is filed with FINMA bi-annually.

Consistently strong solvency position

FY-14 SOLVENCY RATIO DEVELOPMENT & HISTORICAL VIEW

1 The Swiss Solvency Test (SST) ratio is calculated based on the Group’s internal model, and both are subject to the review and approval of the Group’s regulator, the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority (FINMA). The ratio is filed with FINMA bi-annually.

2 Insurance risk, Capital movements & Other.
The SST framework is on average more stringent compared to Solvency II.

For our entities in the EU, we estimate that Solvency II ratios will be on average ~70ppts higher than the corresponding SST ratio.

Key differences include yield curves, choice of risk measure, treatment of market value margin, tax and sovereign credit risk.

No benefit from equivalence of foreign subsidiaries in SST.
The SST framework has been well established for several years. We do not expect that the introduction of Solvency II will have any immediate implications on the SST framework.

Recent changes to the supervisory regime in Switzerland will not have a material impact for Zurich. Specifically, we do not expect that a standard formula will be required for us.

For our EU carriers, we aim to use the Solvency II Standard Formula for Pillar I for Life companies and smaller GI carriers.

Cash remittances are not expected to be greatly impacted by Solvency II in the near term. In the future, we expect Solvency II to have some potential upside.

¹ Indicative and directional view of 2016 BOPAT ROE only; actual target ROE range for 2014-2016 is 12-14%.
Opportunity to improve efficiency

Objectives

- USD 300m cost savings
- Support delivery of 12-14% ROE
- Implement first phase of 2018 transformation

Accounting and restructuring charges

- USD 400m - 600m in one-off charges expected
- Setting up new shared service hubs, lease discontinuation, decommission of IT systems
- Aim to take >60% of the charges in 2015, but some will fall in 2016
- Expected to be largely outside of BOP

2015-2016

2017-2018

- At least further USD 700m savings
- Streamlined objectives with less operational infrastructure (building, systems, FTE in expensive locations)
- Adoption of new digital business models

- Further ~USD 500m one-off investments and charges possible, but more detailed analysis required
- Will be incorporated into 2017 targets
Our capital position remains very strong, and Zurich operates in a stable regulatory environment.

We expect to deploy USD 3bn of excess capital in the next 18 months.

We will continue to focus our retail footprint.

We expect to achieve an ROE within our target range in 2016.
